
Index

- 401 (k) plans, 330
financial education, 333
- A
- account sharing between spouses, 31–32
- accountability political, 381n
- accrual rate, 58
- accrued rights, 90n
- acquired rights, 169, 301
countries that converted to IC, 184 covering, 177–178 demography, 178–179 fair treatment, 170–174
Latvia, 406
Poland, 428
transition, 182
- actuarial benefit formulae, 85
- actuarial benefits policy assessment, 67
- actuarial degree, 77
- actuarial fairness, 50, 208–213, 268, 494 at the margin, 209–211, 219–220
DB systems, 73
NDC v. DB by country, 268f on average, 211–213
redistributive goals, 217
- actuarial principles, 479
- actuarial systems, 63, 76, 239
- actuarially neutral, 40, 50
- adjustment factors, 580
- adjustment mechanisms
DB and NDC differences, 114
- adjustment parameters, 85
- administrative capacity, 378, 565
- administrative costs
Italy and Sweden, 503
- administrative process, 304
- adoption of NDC, 361 consideration issues, 376 influencing other countries, 364–366
Japan, 644–646
networks and institutions, 370 parameters, 366
policy diffusion, 387
role of political institutions, 368, 369
Spain, 622–626, 626–631
variables affecting selection, 358t–360t
- age distribution, 119
Finland, 98t
- age structure, 97–98
- agenda setting, 361, 366
- aging of the population, 3, 35 automatic adjustments, 4
Czech Republic, 12, 552
Europe, 95, 267, 270f
European fiscal pressures, 264n European peak, 271f, 272f from fertility, 97, 98
Germany, 576
Japan, 640
NDC challenge, 36
Poland, 430, 438
reform pressure, 363
Spain, 616
Sweden, 452
- AGIRC. See Association Générale des Institutions de Retraite des Cadres
- allmänna tilläggspension* (ATP), 451
30/15 rule, 464n
- annual real rate of return, 118
- annuities market risk, 61
- annuitization, 460
NDC v. FDC, 165

- annuity, 18
 calculation, 186
 conversion from account, 294–295 dependent variables, 39 design, 46
 generic NDC, 22
 life expectancy, 25–26
 size determination, 29 spousal sharing, 31–32
- anticorruption, 289
- ANW definitions, 52n–53n
- Argentina, 240
 reform leverage, 380n
- ARRCO. See Association des Régimes de Retraite Complémentaires
- assessment
 NDC pension scheme, 60 of countries with implemented NDC, 14 of policies, 67
- asset exchanges, 163n
- asset sustainability, 62
- assets, 169–170
- Association des Régimes de Retraite Complémentaires (ARRCO), 204–205, 206, 215
- Association Générale des Institutions de Retraite des Cadres (AGIRC), 204, 206, 215
- ATP. See allmänna tilläggs pension
- atypical employment, 269–271, 273t
- Austria, 12, 519–546
- automatic balance mechanism (ABM), 7, 10 automatic financial stability, 151
 bibliography, 127 converting accounts to annuities, 163n discount rate, 159, 161
 pure method, 158
 risk allocation, 160–161
- automatic balancing, 198–199, 212–213, 223, 497, 558
 generic NDC, 27–28
 Italian pension system, 478
 Latvia, 402
 Swedish pension system, 457–458
- automatic financial stability, 86, 149
 ABM, 151
 NA plans, 152–158, 157
 shocks, 150
- autonomy, 27, 44
 aging adjustments, 4
- average ages, expected, 140n
- average wage, 314f
- averaging period
 earnings, 77
- Averting the Old-Age Crisis*, 365, 557
- B
- baby boom transition to baby bust, 39–40
- balance, 119, 124. See also financial balance
- balance sheet
 assets and liabilities, 458t
 NDC, 457–458
- balancing, negative, 186
- Belgium, 254t, 231t
- benefit conversion, 42–43
- benefit cuts visibility of, 386
- benefit formula, 82–84
 alternatives, 310t
 NA plan and financial stability, 157
 risk allocation, 85
 worker comprehension, 327
- benefit predictability, 298–300
- benefit value difference from contribution value, 153
- benefits
 and retirement age, 42
 consumer knowledge, 327 demographic factors, 42
 determining, 46
 indexation, 43, 402
- Beveridgian systems, 41
- biological interest rate, 117
- Bismarckian countries reform pressures, 367
- bonds, 25, 87, 157
 Buchanan, 24, 162n
 tax overhang funding, 29
- bridge pensions
 Poland, 379n
- broad funding, 71, 82, 151b
- Buchanan bonds, 24, 162n
- buffer funds, 300, 378n. See also reserve fund France, 221n investment, 379n rate of return, 126, 134n return effect on PAYG system, 124–125
 return on assets, 136n Swedish pension system, 458–459, 464n investment rules, 459
- Bulgaria, 231t, 248t, 254t
- business plan
 Swedish pension system, 455
- C
- calling rate, 204tn, 206
- Canada, 378n
- canonical scheme, 496–497, 512n
- cash flows, relabeling, 155

- Centre d'Etudes Prospectives and d'Informations Internationales (CEPII), 221n
- childcare rights, 190, 193n
Sweden, 464n
- choices
saving or spending, 342–343
- claim on future production, 60
- classification of pensions, 6
- CNAV. See régime général
- cohort projections, 403
- collateral, 43
- Committee on Long-Term Pension Sustainability, 522
- common currency, 239
- comparability of pensions, 344n
- comprehension of benefits, 327. See also financial literacy
- consumption, 61, 338
- continuum, 76, 352t
- contribution assets, 122, 140n
- contribution base growth, 178f
- contribution cost Austria, 276f
- contribution flows
IFM, 158 pension liability, 123, 130
TD, 132
value, 119–123, 126
- contribution principle, 171, 173
- contribution rate, 4, 105t assets equal or greater than liabilities, 25 bounds, 105
contractual, 206
DB system, 172, 354
Finland, 107
fixed, 353
IC, 176–177
pensioner, 549n smoothing changes, 106
stability, 121
stabilizing or reducing, 37
- contribution records
Latvia, 407
- contribution value difference from benefit value, 153
- contribution wage, 178
- contribution wage sum, 400
- contributions
adjusting by average wage growth, 300 atypical employment inequities, 270 crediting, 41 credits, 355
Finnish TEL system, 107t, 108f, 109f for stability, 120 internal interest, 46
minus expenditures, 316f rate of return, 145
weighting, 41
- contributors
nominal and effective, 527
- contributory ceiling, 207, 210
- conversion accounts to annuities, 328
acquired rights, 169
Latvia, 406–408
Poland, 428
conflict of rules, 171 disability benefits, 189–190
fairness, 196
intergenerational transfers, 174 notional capital to annuity, 294–295 of benefits, 42–43
PAYG-DB to NDC, 7–8 speed, 179–181
tax overhang, 29
- conversion rate, 495, 499, 500–501 updating, 513n
- corporate risk premia, 161
- cost-effectiveness, 67
- costs labor mobility barriers, 241 reduction, 304
- coverage, 355 insufficient, 19
NDC, 355
NDC v. DB, 351t, 353t
rates, 314f
- covered wage bill (CWB) Polish pension system, 432t securities, 152, 156, 160
- creditworthiness, 90n
- CREF, 78
- cross-section IRR
income and mortality patterns, 134
PAYG system, 118, 125–126
- cross-section rate of return, 129
- current pension value, 580–581
- Cyprus, 231t, 248t, 254t
- Czech Republic, 12, 551–571
- ## D
- daily prices, 90n
- data collection, 304
- decision making investments, 329, 333
lack of knowledge, 338

- pensions, 325, 326–329
- retirement and savings, 328, 332, 342–343
- decrual, 209, 210
- defined benefit (DB) annuities, 150
- defined benefit (DB) systems, 326t
 - adjustments, 113
 - benefit formula, 327
 - compared to DC, 59, 198
 - contribution rate, 172
 - corporate, 78
 - costs of deviations, 274
 - coverage, 351t
 - definition, 71–72, 86
 - economic growth, 350t
 - features, 352t–353t
 - formulas, 296b
 - funding, 349t
 - generates increasing costs, 172
 - inflation, 350t
 - life expectancy at retirement, 349t
 - mandatory national, 78
 - mimicking NDC system, 172t
 - NDC comparison, 295, 348
 - redistribution, 199, 351t, 562, 564
 - retargeting of resources, 192n
 - risk allocation, 85–86
 - stabilizing contribution rates, 354
 - tax on future generations, 173
 - time horizon, 351t
 - v.* NDC systems, 74
 - years of service, 349t
- defined benefit pay-as-you-go (DB-PAYG) scheme
 - fixed benefits, 20
- defined contribution (DC) schemes, 326t
 - 401 (k) plans, 330
 - trust funds, 329
- defined contribution (DC) systems
 - advantages, 199
 - compared to DB, 59, 198
 - definition, 71, 89n
 - difficulty in estimating benefits, 327
 - mandatory, 78
 - risk allocation, 85–86
 - shocks, 150
- defined contribution v. defined benefit, 59
- delayed retirement, 267, 296–297
 - incentives, 208, 309, 480t, 625
- demographic changes, 36, 42, 101, 114
- demographic factors
 - for pension reform, 361, 363
- demographic funding, 179
- demographic history, 178
- demographic overhang, 178
- demographic pension ratios, 402t
- demographic predictions, 95
- Demographic Reserve Fund (FRD), 432
- demographic uncertainty, 101–109
- Demographic Uncertainty and the Sustainability of Social Welfare Systems (DEMWEL), 110
- Denmark, 232t, 248t, 254t
- deposit-exhaustion constraint, 495
- design, 61
 - features, 39
 - of state pensions, 58–59
 - pan-European pension system, 244
- deviation rate, 495, 496, 498
- disability coverage
 - tax overhang, 179
- disability expenditures, 283, 284, 284f, 287
- disability pensions, 31, 189–190, 283, 304
 - abuse, 287, 319n
 - Austria, 521, 529
 - effective targeting, 285
 - expansion, 284
 - Germany, 578–579, 582
 - Italy, 514n
 - Italy and Sweden, 502–503
 - Latvia, 423n
 - no increases in disabled population, 286
 - original design, 238
 - policy shift needed, 286–287
 - redesign, 237
 - reform, 319n
 - rising in declining population, 283
 - social problems, 287
 - status of recipients by country, 285f
 - Sweden, 463n
- disability population
 - declining amidst rising disability pensions, 283
- disability welfare, 283–286
- disadvantages of NDC, 64–66
- discount rate, 160, 161, 321
- discounting payments, 120
- discretion, 85, 213
- distortions, 63–64
- distribution
 - intergenerational, 159
 - of individual outcomes, 20
- distribution locations
 - pension policy effects, 102, 102t
- distributional effects
 - DB system v. NDC system, 74
- distributional policy, 30–31
- divorce, 236
 - by EU and EUA country, 236t

double-entry bookkeeping, 126

E

early retirement

- Austria, 520, 523
- Czech Republic, 553
- disability, 283
- Germany, 575, 579
- incentives, 267, 296–297, 523
- Latvia, 399, 408
- Spain, 630–631
- Sweden, 462

earnings histories, 175

earnings points, 580

earnings reconstruction, 200

earnings threshold, 578

economic calculations

- demographic uncertainty, 101–102

economic competition

- reform pressures, 363

economic efficiency, 19

economic factors

- for pension reform, 361, 363

economic growth, 37, 352t

- pension provisions, 350t

economic indicators, 401t

Economic Policy Committee (EPC), 227

- Pan-European pension system, 260, 277

economywide saving, 151b economywide stability, 167

ecotax, 208

education. See financial education efficiency, 19, 65

elderly dependency ratio in EU countries, 552f

Employee Benefit Research Institute

- pension knowledge surveys, 332

Employees Provident Fund (EPF)

- the Philippines, 90n employer-sponsored plans

- worker knowledge of, 333 employment

- atypical, 269–271, 271
- informal sector, 297
- joining plan at older age, 83
- rehabilitation programs, 287

employment rate

- EU, 572n
- and types, 237t

EPC. See Economic Policy Committee

EPF. See Employees Provident Fund

equilibrium

- financial markets, 167
- interest rate, 117

equity, 64, 561

erosion of NDC, 371, 372t–373t, 374

Estonia, 248t, 254t, 232t

euro value, 241

Europe

- aging by regions, 270f
- aging peak by country, 272f
- aging peak by regions, 271f
- economic integration, 239
- economies, 36–37
- migration, 274
- need for pension reform, 228
- pan-European pension, 239
- pension terminology, 265n
- reform efforts, 225
- socioeconomic changes, 274
- TFR, 227

European Union (EU)

- coordinated pension system, 225
- employment rate and type, 237t
- family structure changes by country, 236t
- funded pensions by country, 248t–250t
- implicit pension system debt, 264n
- labor force participation, 227, 229, 230t
- NDC policy diffusion, 365
- old-age dependency, 228t
- parametric reforms, 239
- Pension Directive, 252
- pension expenditures, 226–227, 226f, 229t
- social pensions, 253t–258t, 259
- survivor pensions by country, 231t–235t

European Union (EU) Commission

- pan-European pension system, 259

European Union Accession Countries (EUA)

- family structure changes by country, 236t
- funded pensions by country, 248t–250t
- labor force participation, 230t
- old-age dependency, 228t
- pension expenditures, 229t
- social pensions, 253t–258t

Eurostat, 197

evasion, 297, 318n, 399, 406

exclusivity, 355–356

- NDC v. DB, 353t

expenditures, 472

- disability, 283, 284, 284f
- disability exceeds unemployment, 287
- EU, 226–227, 226f
- projections, 227
- EU and EUA, 229t

NDC countries, 298, 298t

pension projections, 436t

social insurance, 415f

explicit indexation, 128, 132

F

fairness, 71, 73, 289, 321
 acquired rights, 170–174
 actuarial, 50
 actuarial at the margin, 209–211, 219–220 actuarial on average, 211–213
 conversion, 196
 intergenerational, 20
 NDC, 208–213
 new entrants, 180
 political arguments, 346
 redistributive goals, 217
 families, 201 family structure changes
 EU and EUA by country, 236f
 FDC. See financial defined contribution feasibility, 66
 FEDEA. See Fundación de Económica Aplicada Federal Financial Markets Authority, 593 fertility rates, 97, 145
 Czech Republic, 552
 decline, 36, 51
 effect on funding, 107
 Europe, 267
 future, 97–101, 100f
 Italy, 490n
 Japan, 640
 Kyrgyz Republic and Latvia, 193n
 Latvia, 400, 410, 412
 fertility-dependent prefunding, 106–109 financial balance, 119, 124, 192, 198–199. See also financial stability
 generic NDC, 23–25, 26
 imbalances, 27–28
 financial defined contribution (FDC)
 annuitization, 165
 Latvia, 402–403
 financial funding, 82 financial literacy, 9, 304, 329–332, 335, 338, 479, 561
 of employer-sponsored plans, 333 role in savings rate, 338
 Sweden, 334, 335f, 336, 336f financial scheme, 15n financial sector development, 238 financial stability. See also financial balance adjustment to demographic trends, 558 automatic, 86, 149
 identity requirement, 134
 NA plan, 157
 pan-European pension system, 245
 shocks, 150
 financial sustainability. See sustainability financial viability

 DB and NDC system differences, 74
 Finland, 97, 106–109, 107t, 108f, 109f, 254t, 232t, first-pillar policy, 88 fiscal concerns, 363 fiscal incentives, 90 fiscal policy, 96 fiscal pressures, 2–3 flat benefit plus NDC pension, 563f replacement rates, 564f
 flaws
 NDC, 267–268
 flexibility mobility, 238
 pension design, 61 people choosing not to supplement, 279–280 policy assessment, 67
 fluctuations, 478
folkpension (FP), 451
 forecasts, 79, 114
 fertility and mortality, 99, 100f
 FP. See folkpension
 France, 41, 203–221
 fraud, 63
 FRD. See Demographic Reserve Fund
 French Council for Retirement Schemes, 221n frontloads, 22
 Fundación de Económica Aplicada (FEDEA), 637n fundamental reform, 525 funded assets, 122, 140n funded defined contribution schemes, 294 losses, 280
 funded pensions, 326t, 493
 EU and EUA, 248t–250t
 funded pillar, 251–252 funding, 71, 81–82 definitions, 151b excess, 110t fertility-dependent, 106–109 issues, 68
 NDC v. DB, 349t, 352t
 FUS. See Social Insurance Fund

G

G factor, 307
 G-values, 39, 52n
 gender equality
 survivor benefits, 190, 201, 236
 generic NDC, 21–29
 German Reform Commission, 48
 Germany, 8, 12–13, 37, 48–50, 203–221, 232t, 255t, 268, 268f, 573–606

- Giarda, P., 515n globalization, 3–4, 238, 274 golden economies, 162n government capacity, 66
 debt securities, 155 intervention, 346, 356, 371, 381n, 387 policy flexibility, 64 rapid change, 323
 Greece, 232t, 255t
 Green Book
 Polish pension system, 434 growth rate and rate of return, 154b growth, negative, 97–98
- H
- heterogeneous pension plans, 300–303 high labor force participation scenario, 540t–541t Hungary, 233t, 249t, 283
- I
- IC. See initial capital
 ID numbers, 444
 ideational forces, 363–366
 IFM. See integration to financial markets illiquidity efficiency costs, 88–89 implementation approaches, 197 challenges, 371
 pan-European pension system, 244
 Polish pension system, 430–433
 requirements, 66
 Sweden and Italy, 498–505
 implicit indexation, 128
 pension liability, 125
 incentives, 46, 295–298
 income index bibliography, 127 income patterns
 cross-section IRR, 134
 definition, 134n
 effect on cohorts, 129t effects on TD and pension liability, 130t PAYG system effects, 140n income replacement, 317f income shifts, 128 income, underreporting, 400–401 independent pension rights, 236
 indexation
 after retirement, 43 alternative adjustments, 114 benefits, 402
 to total wages, 102
 gross wages, 209 implicit and explicit, 128, 132 NDC plans, 87
 rate of available, 126 rate of return alternative, 22 wage, 423n indexation rules budgetary balance, 212 decrual rate, 210 gross wages, 221n
 pension liability, 125
 individual account schemes, 18 individual pension rights, 237
 pan-European pension system, 245
 individual preferences, 219–220 inflation, 350t, 352t, 497
 inflow rates, 288f influencing NDC adoption, 364–366 information for participants, 376–377, 460 participant knowledge of benefits, 479 workers wanting more pension information, 337, 337f information-processing, 65 inheritance capital, 21, 406 inheritance gain, 190, 422 initial capital (IC), 301–302
 calculation, 174–179, 185, 199–200
 contribution principle, 173 countries that converted acquired rights, 184–185
 Latvia, 404, 406–407
 Institute for Advanced Studies, 526 institutional capacity constraints, 303
 NDC demands, 304–306 of governments in transition, 323–324 insurance, 83–84 scheme, 19 separation, 199 integration to financial markets (IFM), 29, 151, 161
 benefits, 157
 compared to Swedish ABM, 158–161 Inter-American Development Bank (IDB)
 policy diffusion, 380n
 interaction with existing schemes, 324
 interest accrual, natural, 41 intergenerational distribution, 159, 390 intergenerational equilibrium, 224 intergenerational exchange, 166–167 intergenerational fairness, 20 intergenerational redistribution, 354 intergenerational risk sharing, 87

intergenerational transfers, 174
 internal interest of contributions, 46 internal rate of return (IRR), 125–126, 134, 192n components of, 177
 forms, 124
 generic NDC, 23–25
 income and mortality pattern shifts, 128 life expectancy link, 221n longitudinal, 118
 NDC, 19
 negative, 128
 PAYG finance, 153 positive, 132
 internal real rate of return, 24 international diversification, 238 international forces, 363–366 international market integration, 274 international transferability of pension benefits, 73–74
 intragenerational redistribution, 354, 390
 intragenerational redistributions, 74 investment decisions, 329, 333
 options, 339n risk, 61
 Ireland, 233t, 256t
 IRR. See internal rate of return
 Italy, 11, 467–485

J

Japan, 13, 639–647
 Jordan, 302

K

KNH. See Kosei-Nenkin-Hoken knowledge. See also financial literacy effects on participant decisions, 338 financial, 325
 increased need, 339
 of benefits by workers, 479
 of employer-sponsored plans, 333
 of reform effects, 334
 U.S. survey, 332–333
 worker knowledge of Swedish pension system, 335, 335f, 336, 336t workers, 332–338
 knowledge gap, 280
 Kosei-Nenkin-Hoken (KNH), 640–647
 Kyrgyz Republic, 182, 184, 189, 193n, 636n

L

labor capacity
 unused, 523–524, 524f labor demand and supply, 297–298 labor force participation
 Austria, 522
 Austrian scenarios, 527–528, 532t–541t
 EU, 228–229, 229
 EU and EUA, 230t
 Europe, 227
 Japan, 645
 scenarios, 545
 labor market decisions by workers, 83
 disincentives, 237
 distortions, 63
 flexibility, 240
 incentives, 77
 integration, 241 neutrality, 558
 labor mobility, 240, 274
 across professions and borders, 245 costs of barriers, 241 European, 259–260 labor supply
 disincentives, 37–38, 42–43
 optimal decisions, 310t
 optimization problem, 311 land durable assets, 154b
 Latvia, 1, 9–10, 22, 25–26, 28, 46, 61, 145, 183t, 185, 193n, 211t, 233t, 249t, 256t, 301, 302, 323, 349t, 352t, 397–423, 431f, 435f lifelong learning, 239, 274 lifetime capital, 23 lifetime income principle, 454
 liquidity, 88–89
 liquidity band, 26
 Lisbon Strategy, 572n
 Lithuania, 101, 102t, 104, 104f, 233t, 256t loans, 89, 90n
 low labor force participation scenario
 Austria, 536t–537t
 low-income countries
 NDC v. DB, 306–307
 noncontributory scheme, 321
 low-income guarantee, 171
 Luxembourg, 233t, 256t

M

Malta, 233t, 256t management risk, 61 mandatory plans, 191
 liquidity, 88–89

- marriages
 - by EU and EUA country, 236t
 - measurement of rate of return, 143–144
 - medium labor force participation scenario, 538t–539t
 - middle-income countries
 - NDC v. DB, 306–307
 - noncontributory scheme, 321
 - migration, 240
 - Europe, 275
 - minimum pension guarantee, 303, 562, 563f
 - France, 205
 - replacement rates, 564f
 - minimum retirement age, 45–46
 - Latvia, 398, 399, 405, 421
 - setting, 29, 68
 - sufficient NDC benefit, 30
 - minimum social pensions, 280–282
 - mobility. See also labor mobility
 - across professions and borders, 245
 - barriers, 275–276
 - effect on pension benefits, 327–328
 - European, 259–260
 - funded pillars, 251
 - pan-European, 243, 279
 - pension flexibility, 238
 - Modelo de Pensiones (MODPENS), 619–620
 - models
 - IC, 174–178, 182t–183t
 - MODPENS. See Modelo de Pensiones
 - mortality
 - decrease effect on sustainability, 98
 - forecast, 100f
 - forecasting, 99
 - future, 97–101
 - uncertainty, 103
 - pattern shifts, 132
 - cohort benefits, 133b
 - IRR, 128
 - NDC system, 134
 - PAYG system effects, 140n
 - TD and pension liability, 133b
 - projections, 403
 - multipillar system, 8, 14–15, 356
 - mutual fund definition, 86
- N
- NA. See notional account
 - narrow funding, 71, 81
 - national political environments, 367–369
 - National Social Insurance Board, 330, 455
 - negative balancing, 186
 - negative incentive, 37–38
 - net wages
 - German pension scheme, 208
 - Polish pension system, 445n
 - Netherlands, the, 234t, 249t, 250tn, 257t, 283
 - new entrants, 179–180
 - non-employment
 - disability pensions, 285–286
 - non-financial defined contribution (NDC), 169, 346
 - account value information, 79
 - accrual rate, 58
 - actuarial fairness, 208–213
 - adherence to rules, 322
 - adoption
 - issues, 376
 - parameters, 366
 - role of political institutions, 368, 369
 - advantages, 44–45, 60–63, 289–290
 - and FDC, 4, 18, 167
 - annuitization, 165
 - annuity and life expectancy, 25–26
 - assessment, 14, 60
 - assets, 169–170
 - automatic intervention, 113
 - automatic stabilizers, 212–213, 223
 - balance between assets and liabilities, 4
 - benefit as annuity, 18
 - calculating IC, 174–179
 - cases, 67–68
 - challenges, 36–38
 - components, 58
 - continuum, 352t
 - conversion to, 15
 - countries reviewing NDC approach, 11–13
 - countries with NDC schemes, 9
 - coverage, 351t
 - DB comparison, 43, 295, 348
 - definition, 4, 18, 130
 - design, 4, 5, 39, 45–47
 - diffusion, 370
 - disadvantages, 45, 346–347
 - economic growth, 350t
 - economic indicators, 401t
 - economic nature, 196
 - equity, 64, 561
 - erosion, 371, 372t–373t, 374
 - exclusivity, 355–356
 - expenditures, 298, 298t
 - factors for determining benefits, 408
 - false claims, 50
 - features, 203, 352–355, 352t–353t
 - compared to DB, 349t–351t
 - financial stability, 217
 - pan-European pension system, 245
 - fixed contribution rate, 353

- flaws, 267–268
 - flexibility, 78
 - funding, 349t
 - generational rate of return, 146
 - generic, 21–29
 - history, 345–346
 - how it works, 348
 - ideal structure, 244
 - incentives, 295–298
 - income statement and balance sheet, 131t, 135t
 - indexation, 87
 - inflation, 350t
 - influencing other countries' reform, 364–366
 - institutional capacity, 304–306
 - internalize demographic changes, 299
 - liabilities as public debt, 386
 - life expectancy
 - at retirement, 349t
 - changes, 353
 - mechanisms, 40
 - middle- and low-income countries, 8–9, 321–322
 - mortality pattern shifts, 134
 - non-fiscal reform needs, 274
 - nonmonetized scheme, 24–25
 - overview, 17, 18–21
 - pan-European pension system, 244, 276–277
 - parameters, 214
 - participation, 223
 - pension value, 20, 25
 - permanency, 346
 - plus flat benefit, 563f
 - policy design, 369–370
 - political advantages, 347
 - political and administrative capacity, 378
 - political assets, 289–290
 - political attraction, 375, 380n
 - political backlash, 357
 - political opposition, 368
 - political support, 375
 - political viability, 391–392
 - portfolio considerations, 564
 - poverty prevention, 303–304
 - promises, 2–5
 - properties, 25–26
 - pure, 213, 218
 - quasi-actuarial, 72
 - redistribution, 351t
 - reform needs, 244
 - reform outcomes and country characteristics, 362t
 - retirement
 - incentives to defer, 625
 - savings effect, 298
 - shock resistance, 213–217
 - social policy, 29–32
 - sustainability, 494
 - system scale, 29–30
 - systems, 38–44
 - technical preconditions, 565
 - time horizon, 351t, 355
 - uncertainty, 218
 - v.* DB systems, 74
 - for middle- and low-income countries, 306–307
 - variables affecting selection of pension scheme, 358t–360t
 - variations, 294–295
 - virtual bank, 494
 - years of service, 349t
 - non-financial scheme, 15n
 - nonactuarial systems
 - funded and unfunded, 72
 - noncontributory pension, 252
 - implementing complementary, 305f
 - middle- and low-income countries, 321
 - noncontributory periods, 562
 - noncontributory rights, 30
 - childcare, 190, 406
 - Latvia, 400, 416
 - Swedish pension system, 450
 - nonmonetized NDC scheme, 24–25
 - norm rate of return, 186–187
 - Norway, 285
 - notional account (NA) plans, 87, 88
 - automatic financial stability, 152–158
 - role in pillars one and three, 88–89
 - shocks, 150
 - notional capital, 495
 - generic NDC, 21
 - notional DC scheme, 18
 - notional interest rate, 40
 - NDC equilibrium, 217
- O
- occupational reinsertion, 287
 - occupational schemes
 - Germany, 594, 595t
 - Italy, 490n
 - Sweden, 332, 462, 464n
 - OECD. See Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development
 - old-age dependency
 - EU and EUA, 228t
 - Germany ratio, 576, 576f
 - old-age pension, 238
 - old-age poverty, 218, 282, 377

- decline, 280–281
- incidence data, 265n
- prevention, 252
- orange envelope, 330, 331t, 332, 460
- Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD)
 - average pension expenditures, 298t
- overlapping generations (OLG) model, 77, 128–134
 - shortcomings of two-age, 141n
- P
- pan-European pension system, 225–265, 274, 276–279
- Paraguay, 88
- parametric reforms, 239, 525, 626
 - difficulties, 556
- partial liquidity, 89
- pay-as-you-go (PAYG) system, 69n, 326t
 - absence of funded assets, 119
 - alternative simulation, 312, 313t
 - annual real rate of return, 118
 - asset, 153–154, 162n
 - cash flow, 155–156, 156–157
 - cross-section IRR, 118, 125–126
 - economic asset, 152–155
 - effect of return on buffer fund, 124–125
 - finance, 88
 - funded and unfunded, 71
 - income and mortality pattern shifts, 140n
 - NDC financial stability, 217
 - negative incentive effects, 37
 - origins, 493
 - rate of return, 117, 124–126, 143, 145
 - real rate of return, 140n
 - social contract, 392
- payroll taxes, 377
 - NDC v. DB, 352t
- pension demographic ratios, 402t
- Pension Directive
 - EU, 252
- pension expenditures, 226–227, 226f
 - Austria, 521
 - NDB v. NDC, 544f
 - EU and EUA, 229t
 - factors, 472
 - Germany, 575–576
 - Italy, 493
 - Latvia, 398, 414f, 415f
 - NDC countries, 298, 298t
 - Poland, 436
 - projections, 227
 - Poland v. OECD countries, 436t
 - Spain projections, 619t
- pension income gap, 279–280
- pension knowledge. See financial literacy; knowledge
- pension liability, 120, 122, 122f
 - cross-sectional, 146
 - definition, 134–135, 140n
 - equations, 137–138
 - implicit indexation, 125
 - income pattern shifts, 130t
 - measurement, 121
 - mortality pattern shifts, 133b
 - rate of return, 124
 - TD, 123
- pension literacy, 289
- pension policies, 67
- pension reform
 - alternative approaches, 427t
 - determinants and patterns, 370–371
 - economic and demographic factors, 361, 363
 - EU and EUA, 226–229
 - history, 345–346
 - influencing other countries, 364–366
 - NDC adoption parameters, 366
 - outcomes and country characteristics, 362t
 - political viability, 391–392
 - role of finance ministry officials, 368
 - role of institutions, 380n
 - uncertainty, 389
- Pension Reform Options Simulation Toolkit (PROST), 526–527, 529, 545, 548
 - benefit calculations, 549n
- pension rights, 166, 236, 237, 455
- pension systems, 3–4, 40–41
 - actuarial v. nonactuarial, 71
 - autonomy, 290
 - Beveridgian and Bismarckian
 - fairness, 210
 - categories, 15n
 - classification, 6, 76, 77, 191n
 - for consumer decision making, 326
 - comparing alternatives, 71
 - components of, 79
 - continuum, 76
 - design, 61
 - dimensions, 41t, 81
 - economics, 59–60
 - EU and EUA, 248t–250t
 - framework for intergenerational exchange, 166–167
 - funding issue, 68
 - impact on national saving, 82
 - implicit debt in EU, 264n
 - influencing other countries, 364–366
 - life cycle approach, 390

- liquidity, 88–89
 - minimum income for elderly, 30
 - nonsteady state, 143
 - objectives, 57–58
 - rhetoric, 50, 51
 - stability, 213
 - types, 326t
 - under consideration, 313t
 - variables affection scheme selection, 358t–360t
 - worker knowledge, 332–338
 - pension value, 580–581
 - earnings point relationship, 53n
 - equal to account balance, 25
 - equal to contributions and rate of return, 20
 - pension wealth visibility, 386
 - pension-related deficits, 240
 - pensionable earnings, 494
 - pensioner contribution rate, 549n
 - period life expectancy, 145
 - permanency
 - NDC, 346
 - personal account schemes
 - NDC or FDC, 170
 - Philippines, the, 90n
 - pillar terminology
 - Polish pension system, 426
 - pillars
 - role of NA plans, 88–89
 - plan ownership, 155
 - point system, 192n, 204–207, 207–208. See also
 - France; Germany
 - point values, 221n
 - Poland, 10. 167n, 183t, 184–186, 234t, 249t, 257t, 268, 268f, 298t, 301, 324, 425–446
 - policy design
 - NDC reform package, 369–370
 - policy diffusion, 379n, 380n, 381n, 387
 - NDC adoption, 364–366, 370
 - policy feedbacks, 366, 371
 - political accountability, 381n
 - political advantages
 - NDC, 347
 - political analysis, 375
 - political arguments
 - fairness, 346
 - political attraction, 380n
 - political backlash, 357
 - political capacity, 378
 - political challenges, 37
 - political economy, 564–565
 - political institutions
 - policy diffusion, 380n
 - political issues, 9, 64
 - political management, 376
 - political manipulation, 84
 - political national environments, 387
 - political responsibility, 368, 380n, 392
 - political risks, 347, 392n
 - political support, 375, 508
 - political system characteristics, 367–369
 - political viability, 391–392
 - Ponzi scheme, 154b
 - population
 - Austria, 522
 - Latvia, 410–411
 - economically active, 411f
 - projections, 552
 - projections for Spain, 616t
 - portfolio considerations, 564
 - Portugal, 234t, 257t
 - poverty prevention, 303–304
 - PPA. See Premium Pension Authority
 - predictability
 - sustainability tradeoffs, 299
 - prefunding, 106–109
 - Premium Pension Authority (PPA), 330, 334, 459–460
 - objectives, 504
 - preretirement
 - Germany, 582–583
 - present discounted value (PDV), 39
 - preservation approach, 245
 - private pensions, 61, 62
 - progressive redistribution, 355
 - progressive taxation, 65
 - low-income guarantee, 171
 - property rights, 166
 - PAYG cash flows, 155
 - security, 90n
 - PROST. See Pension Reform Options Simulation Toolkit
 - provident funds, 321
 - public trust, 427
 - purchasing price, 206
- Q
- quasi-actuarial system, 72
- R
- rate of available indexation, 126
 - rate of return, 495
 - contributions, 145
 - economic growth, 166
 - fluctuations, 462
 - generic NDC, 22
 - IC, 177–178
 - larger than growth rate, 154b

- measurement, 143–144
- natural, 38
- norm, 186–187
- notional system, 140n
- PAYG system, 117, 124–126, 143
- pension liability, 124
- Rationalisation of Social Expenditure in Poland*, 434
- rebalancing mechanism, 52n
- recognition bond, 162n
- record keeping, 444
 - requirements, 324
- redistribution, 171
 - acquired rights, 170
 - across income classes, 318n
 - atypical employment, 270
 - DB system, 199, 564
 - distortion, 77
 - goals, 217
 - insurance separation, 199
 - intra- and intergenerational, 354
 - intragenerational, 390
 - middle classes, 84
 - NDC v. DB, 351t, 352t
 - progressive, 355
 - transparency, 303–304
 - types, 84
- reference wage, 221n
- reform drivers, 1, 274
- reform preferences, 561
- reform pressures, 2–5
- régime général (CNAV), 204
 - minimum pension, 205
 - retirement period revaluations, 206
- replacement rate, 105, 105t, 191
 - conversion speed, 181
 - different cohorts, men and women, 434t
 - minimum guarantee v. flat benefit, 564f
 - primary balance, 315f
- repossession method, 90n
- reserve funds, 43, 179, 188–189. See also buffer funds
 - generic NDC, 26
 - governance, 305–306
 - prudent investment, 302
- resource allocation, 240
- retirement. See also delayed retirement; early retirement
 - consumption drop, 338
 - decisions, 220
 - early incentives, 296–297
 - flexibility, 251
 - incentives to delay, 208
 - optimal decisions, 310t
 - optimization problem, 311
 - savings inadequacy, 344
- retirement age, 45–46, 50, 353
 - and benefits, 42
 - Austria, 520
 - choices, 68, 308
 - Czech Republic, 559
 - earlier, 83
 - encouraging longer work life, 73
 - equalization for men and women, 434
 - fixed, 105
 - flexibility, 61, 114, 218
 - Germany, 574, 577, 583, 585f, 602, 605
 - Italy, 470, 490n
 - Italy and Sweden, 498–499
 - Latvia, 185
 - money-weighted average, 132
 - NDC v. DB, 349t, 352t
 - Spain, 630–631
 - worker comprehension, 328
- return spring, 8, 216, 218, 221n
- rhetoric, 50, 51
- Riester formula, 216
- Riester pensions
 - certification requirements, 597
 - compensating for PAYG, 598–599, 598f
 - depth of subsidies, 596f
 - participation, 597
 - stabilize German system, 599
 - total pension level, 605f
- Riester reform, 47, 589–590, 590t, 591, 606
 - assessment, 594–601
- rights, accrued, 90n
- risk, 61–62
 - allocation, 79, 85–88
 - ABM and IFM, 160–161
 - classification, 85–86
 - avoidance by pensioners, 514n
 - creation, 87
 - DC systems, 90n, 199
 - diversification, 238
 - NDC adoption, 376
 - political, 347
 - political assessment, 356
 - reinforcement, 280
 - sharing between generations, 390
 - tolerance, 86–87
- risk management, 290
- Romania
 - funded pensions, 249t
 - survivor pensions, 234t
- rules' adherence, 322
- Rürup commission, 577, 601, 606
- Rürup Commission Report, 208, 264n
- Rürup formula, 216

S

- Salvati, M., 515n
- Sandhamn conference, 1, 14, xii
- savings
 - decision making, 342–343
 - inadequacy, 344
 - NDC effect, 298
 - optimal decisions, 310t
 - optimization problem, 311
- savings rate, 338
- scenarios
 - Austrian pension system, 532t–541t
- second pillar
 - European definition, 265n
- securitization, 156
- security
 - property rights, 90n
- service years, 175, 301–302
- severance pay funds, 505
- sharing accounts, 190, 193n
- shocks, 149, 150
- Slovak Republic, 234t, 257t
- Slovenia, 235t
- social arbitrage, 246
- social contract, 392, 392n
- social insurance, 62
 - Latvia, 415f, 416, 417f
- Social Insurance and Pension Model, 413
- Social Insurance Fund (FUS), 432
 - projections, 437
 - state budget subsidies, 433t
- social pension pillar, 281
 - EU, 252
- social pensions, 377
 - EU and EUA by country, 253t–258t
 - minimum guarantee, 280–282
 - pan-European eligibility, 259
- social policy, 29–32
- social rights, 274
- social science theory, 347
- Social Security Administration (SSA), 329
- Social Security Institution
 - record keeping, 445
- social security systems
 - taxonomy, 72, 72t
- socioeconomic changes, 3
 - Europe, 237, 268–269, 274
- solvency, 154–155
- Soviet system legacy, 399
- Spain, 13, 235t, 257t, 611–633
- special rights, 187, 193n
 - Latvia, 422n
 - IC conversion, 406–407
 - spousal sharing, 31–32, 190, 193n
 - stability of NDC, 299
 - state pensions, 58–59
 - status-quo scenario
 - Austria, 532t–533t
 - steady state, 24, 140n, 143, 145
 - stochastic realizations, 76
 - stochastic simulations
 - European countries, 110
 - population, 101, 103
 - store current production, 59, 60
 - surplus, 458
 - survival probability, 100
 - survivor pensions, 190, 236, 304
 - abuse, 319n
 - Austria, 521, 529
 - by country, 231t–235t
 - gender equality, 201
 - Germany, 578–579, 582
 - Italy and Sweden, 499–500
 - Latvia, 406
 - pan-European pension system, 245
 - reform, 319n
 - sustainability, 298–300, 525
 - factor, 48, 602–603
 - NDC, 494
 - of assets, 62
 - operationalizing, 106
 - policy assessment
 - predictability tradeoffs, 299
 - uncertainty, 96–97
 - sustainable strategy, 96, 110
- Sweden, xi, 10, 11, 32n, 52n, 75n, 87, 90n, 96, 118, 123f, 158–161, 183t, 184–185, 186, 188–189, 191, 197, 213, 218, 235t, 250t, 258t, 268, 268f, 298t, 301, 330–332, 335, 335f, 336, 336t, 337, 337f, 355–356, 449–464, 497–507, 507t, 512n, 645
- Switzerland, 322
- synthetic cohort measures, 145
- system dependency ratio, 2–3
- system liabilities, 23

T

- tax force to retire indicator, 524
- tax overhang, 29, 176, 177, 179
- tax wedge, 72–73, 75n
 - labor decisions, 82
- tax-character contributions, 38
- taxation, progressive, 65
- TD. See turnover duration
- tempo distortion, 146
- TFR. See total fertility rate
- third pillar

European definition, 265n
 third-pillar policy, 88
 TIAA-CREF, 78 time horizon, 355
 NDC v. DB, 351t, 353t
 total fertility rate (TFR), 145. See also fertility rate transfer approach, 245 transfer wealth, 153 transition
 acquired rights, 182
 Austria, 526
 Czech Republic, 558
 financing, 302–303 gradual, 181 immediate, 200
 interaction with existing schemes, 324 issues, 188t
 Italy, 476
 Latvia, 407, 413
 pan-European pension system, 243, 246–247, 277
 phase, 198
 Poland, 427–430
 Spain, 626–631, 631t
 Swedish pension system, 459
 transition generation, 181 transition period rules, 46–47
 transparency, 62–63, 306, 560–561
 financial, 20
 redistribution, 303–304
 trust funds, 329
 turnover duration (TD), 7, 23, 121, 122, 122f age difference, 144 age differential, 128 contribution flow value, 132 estimate of discount rate, 126 estimates for 41 countries, 139 expected, 140n fertility-driven growth rate, 141n
 income pattern shifts, 130t
 mortality pattern shifts, 133b
 nonsteady state, 145
 rate of return, 186
 volatility, 123

U ultimate funding, 82
 Uncertain Population of Europe (UPE), 110
 uncertainty, 61–62, 96–97
 consumer information, 326 demographic, 101–109
 NDC, 218, 299

quantifying, 99–101
 reforms, 389, 556, 581 underreporting income, 400–401, 406, 420 unemployment, 37 compensation, 583
 unfunded scheme, 326t uniformity of returns, 496
 United Kingdom, 62–63, 235t, 250t, 258t, 283, 322, United Nations population projections, 552
 United States, 144, 329–330, 332–334 unused labor capacity, 523–524, 524f
 Uruguay, 380n

V

vintage pensions
 Italy and Sweden, 498
 virtual bank, 494
 virtual capital, 211, 213 volatility, 299, 316f, 317f voluntary plans people choose not to participate, 279–280

W

wage bill, 314t, 497 wage indexation, 187, 423n
 Latvia, 423n
 wage-bill indexation, 104 wage-sum, 299 wagering, 87
 wealth illusion, 327
 weighting, 41, 76–77
 welfare differentiation, 289–290 effects, 66
 widow's pension. See survivor pensions work arrangements
 Europe by country, 237t
 Working Group on Pensions, 453, xi
 World Bank
 Averting the Old-Age Crisis, 557
 pan-European pension system goals, 242 policy diffusion, 365, 391
 PROST, 526–527
 Sandhamn conference, xii

Y

years of service, 580
 benefit formulae, 82
 NDC v. DB, 349t
 yield in advance, 213

Z

zero buffer fund, 141n

zero pillar, 213, 281–282

